St. Cloud Hotel.

THIS new and commodious house, located corner of Broadway and 42d Street, possesses advantages over all other houses for the accommodation of its guests. It was built expressly for a first class family boarding house—the rooms being large and en suite, heated by steam—with hot and cold water, and furnished second to none; while the culinary department is in the most experienced hands, affording guests an unequaled table.

One of Atwood's Patent Elevators is also among the "modern improvements" and at the service of guests at all hours.

The Broadway and University Place Cars pass the door every four minutes, running from the City Hall to Central Park, while the Sixth and Seventh Avenue Lines are but a short block on either side, affording ample facilities for communicating with all the Depots, Steamboat Landings, places of Amusement and Business of the great metropolis.

A POEM IN UNDRESS.

It is many years since I fell in love with Jerusha Jane Skeggs, the handsomest country girl by far that ever went on legs. By my meadow creek, and wood, and dell, so often did we walk: and the moonlight smiled on her melting lips, and the night wind learned our talk. Jerusha Jane was all to me, for my heart was young and true, and loved with doubled and twisted love, and a love that was honest, too. I roamed all over the neighbors' farms, and I robbed the wildwood's bower, and tore my trowsers and scratched my hands in search for the choicest flowers. In my boyish love I brought all these to my Jerusha Jane; but I wouldn't be so foolish now, if I were a boy again. A city chap that came along, all dressed up in fine clothes, with a shiny hat and a shiny vest, and a mustache under his nose.

He talked to her of singing schools (for her father owned a farm,) and she left me, the country lore, and took the new chap's arm. But all that night I never slept, nor could I eat next day, for I loved that girl with a fervent love that naught could drive away. I strove to win her back to me, but it was all in vain; the city chap, with the hairy lip, married Jerusha Jane. And my poor heart was sick and sore until the thought struck me, that just as good fish still remain, as ever were caught in the sea. So I went to the Methodist church one night, and saw a dark brown curl, peeping from under a gipsy hat, and I married that very girl. And many years have passed and gone, and I think my loss my gain; and I often bless that hairy chap that stole Jerusha Jane.

SAVING MANURE.

Every man of common sense must admit that the rules to be adopted for a rational system of saving manures, must be based on the knowledge of this process; and we may lay down the following rules in relation to it:

1st. The ground selected for the disposition of stable manure should be even, in order to permit the equal distribution of the manure on it, and thus secure to the heap uniformity in thickness. Only in this case the process of putrefaction will proceed regularly in every part of the heap, and its body will prove to be a homogeneous character.

2d. The manure should be protected against the direct rays of the sun, in order to prevent the too rapid advance of the putrefactive process, and a consequent generation of heat which will incur a considerable loss of ammonia. Practical experiments made with equal weights of stable manure exposed to the sun, and with that under cover, show the effect of the later to be, within a certain time, about twenty-five per cent. greater than the former.

3. The manure heap should be kept moderately moist; if it be too dry, the degree of heat then produced will volatilize ammonia; if too wet, an acid humus will be formed, which, being soluble in water, acts very injuriously on vegetation. In order best to attain this end, the ground should be slightly inclined, and all the fluid that runs from the heap be collected in a pit and from time to time scattered over the heap.

A writer in the Homestead reports a statement made at the New Haven lectures, that by adding a tablespoonful of finest salt to a quart of cream, as the latter is skimmed from off the milk and placed in the cream pots until enough accumulates for churning, the time required for churning is reduced to two or three minutes. In a trial made by the writer, he found this to be true, and his theory is, that the salt acts upon the thin coating of the globules of butter, and so dissolves it that a slight agitation breaks it, and the butter comes at once. The experiment can easily be tried by any butter-maker.

WORTH KNOWING.—An exchange says persons who use kerosene lamps will be glad to know that if the wicks are soaked in strong vinegar twenty-four hours and thoroughly dried before being inserted all smoke will be avoided, the wicks will last twice as long, and increased brilliant light will be obtained.

WAR BY MACHINERY.

The latest novelty abroad in the art of fighting by machinery says the Richmond Whig, is something known as a "ball-syringe," now on exhibition at Vienna, and christened La Mitrailleuse. As described, it has the shape of a small cannon, and is served by five men. The breech end of the barrel is a small, movable, square box. It contains thirty-seven common infantry cartridges, arranged like cigars in a bundle. As soon as it is attached to the breech of the cannon the Mitrailleuse is loaded.—A man sitting on the carriage fires it by turning a crank. The sound produced by the discharge makes the impression of a platoon fire. The crank is turned once more and the cartridge-box removes itself from the cannon; a man to the right takes it, removes from it the "cigar-box;" the man to the left puts a new one in and brings it again to its place; two other men constantly move to and fro bringing ammunition. The same crank moves the cannon in every desired direction. At the last performance the Mitrailleuse discharged four hundred and forty-four balls in one minute. It was, therefore, loaded and fired twelve times in a minute. The Austrian Secretary of War, who was present at the experiment, declared its effect to be equal to a volley of a battalion of six hundred men. All the balls were fired into a surface of twelve feet square at a distance of six hundred yards. The Hungarian officers who were present at the experiments burtahed when they saw the terrible effects of the new machine. "The very devil," they said, "could not have invented anything more terrible. It may mow down a battalion in three minutes, and if two hostile armies use this new offspring of h—ll, they may annihilate one another with the celerity of lightning. If mankind wishes to exterminate itself, La Mitrailleuse will do the job for it." The great merit of the invention seems to be that it dispenses so largely with the use of men—five doing the service of six hundred.—One cannot help hoping that, in the progress of invention, the time may come when wars will be waged altogether by machinery, and great battles will be fought without the loss of a life.

In procuring for one's home the necessary furniture, considerations of elegance and taste are to be considered, as well as convenience and economy. In making such purchases it is desirable to find an establishment combining these advantages, with reliability and fair dealing. Such a house we believe is that of FROST BLACK & Co., 69 Lowery, New York, whose announcement may be found in our advertising columns. Their house is one of the largest of the kind in the country, and everything purchased of them is guaranteed to be as represented.

THE TOMATO WORM ejects from its mouth, when irritated, a green poisonous substance a distance of three to fifteen inches directly at the hand or arm of the person picking the fruit. This substance is so caustic a poison that if there should be the slightest abrasion of the skin, or if a thin or delicate skinned person, it will cause a sensation similar to the sting of a bee, and produce violent sickness and perhaps death. Persons picking tomatoes should have their hands and arms protected by long leather gloves or other thick covering.

An exchange says: "A good cow well fed gives more milk than a dozen half starved. The same may be said of hogs."

THE PUBLIC DEBT during the six months since Grant's inauguration, says the Tribune, has been reduced $49,500,758,51

A little boy, in giving an account to his mother of the Garden of Eden, said: "The Lord made a gardener and put him in the garden to take care of it, and to see that nobody hurt anything or pasted bills on the trees."

A Cure for this Disease may be found in the use of

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER.

I have used the medicine known as PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER in my family [illegible] great pleasure in testifying to its very valuable properties. I would not on any account be without it. During the existence of the cholera last year I used no medicine of any sort but the Pain Killer, although myself and several members of my family were attacked by it severely, and I am happy to say that the Pain Killer was equal to every emergency; it was both a preventive and a certain cure. I consider I should not be doing my duty to the community did I not say this much. If I were attacked by the Cholera to-day, the Pain Killer would be the only remedy I should use. I have thoroughly tested it and know it can be relied on. F. E BERGINSEND,

SPECIAL NOTICE.

SCIENCE ADVANCES.

As soon as an article purporting to be of utility has been tested, and its merits endorsed by public opinion, unprincipled parties endeavor to replenish their depleted purses by counterfeiting, and substituting a spurious for the genuine article. Sometime since, mercury, in the disguise of pills, powders, &c. was given for all diseases of the stomach and liver, while quinine was freely administered for the chills. At length HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS made its advent, and an entire new system of healing was inaugurated. The beneficial effects of this valuable preparation were at once acknowledged, and mineral poisons suffered to sink into that obscurity to which an enlightened age has consigned them. There have been many spurious Bitters palmed upon the community, which, after trial, have been found perfectly worthless, while HOSTETTER'S has proved a blessing to thousands, who owe to it their restoration to health and for many years we have watched the steady progress of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS in public estimation and its beneficient effects as a cure for all complaints arising from the stomach, of a morbid nature, and we are free to say that it can be relied upon as a certain relief and remedy. Its proprietors have made the above preparation, after years of careful study and sifting, and are now reaping the reward claimed by this valuable specific, and which they so richly merit. It is the only preparation of the kind that is reliable in all cases, and it therefore demands the attention of the afflicted. Sept. 1, 16 1m.

THE KIDNEYS.—THE KIDNEYS ARE TWO in number, situated at the upper part of the loin surrounded by fat, and consisting of three parts, viz.: the Anterior, the Interior and the Exterior.

The anterior absorbs. Interior consists of tissues or veins, which serve as a depositor to the urine and convey it to the exterior. The exterior is a conductor also, terminating in a single tube, and called the Ureter. The ureters are connected with the bladder.

The bladder is composed of various coverings or tissues, divided into parts, viz: the Upper, the Lower, the Nervous, and the Mucous. The upper expels, the lower retains. Many have a desire to urinate without the ability; others urinate without the ability to retain. This frequently occurs in children.

To cure these affections, we must bring into action the muscles, which are engaged in their various functions. If they are neglected, Gravel or Dropsy may ensue.

The reader must also be made aware, that however slight may be the attack, it is sure to affect the bodily health and mental powers as our flesh and blood are supported from these sources.

GOUT, OR RHEUMATISM.—Pain occurring in the loins is indicative of the above diseases. They occur in persons disposed to acid stomach and chalky concretions.

THE GRAVEL.—The gravel ensues from neglect or improper treatment of the kidneys.—These organs being weak, the water is not expelled from the bladder, but allowed to remain; it becomes feverish, and sediment forms. It is from this deposit that the stone is formed, and gravel ensues.

DROPSY is a collection of water in some parts of the body, and bears different names according to the parts affected, viz.: when generally diffused over the body, it is called Anasarca; when of the abdomen, Ascites; when of the chest Hydrothorax.

TREATMENT.—Helmbold's Highly concentrated compound Extract Buchu is decidedly one of the best remedies for diseases of the bladder, kidneys, &c., directed. Under this head we have a ranged Dysuria, or difficulty and pain in passing water, scanty secretion, or small and frequent discharges of water; Strangury, or stopping of water; Hematuria, or bloody urine; Gravel and Rheumatism of the kidneys, without any change in quantity, but increase of color, or dark water. It was always highly recommended by the late Dr. Physick, in these affections.

This medicine increases the power of digestion, and excites, the absorbents into healthy exercise, by which the watery, or calcareous, depositions, and all unnatural enlargements, as well as pain and inflamation, are reduced and it is taken by men, women, and children. Directions for use and diet accompany.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Feb. 25, 1867.

H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist:

DEAR SIR—I have been a sufferer, for upward of twenty years, with gravel, bladder, and kidney affections, during which time I have used various medical preparations and been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consulted with my family physician in regard to using your Extract Buchu. I did this because I had used all kinds of advertised remedies, and had found them worthless, and some quite injurious; in fact, I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no remedies hereafter unless I knew of the ingredients. It was this that prompted me to use your remedy. As you advertised that it was composed of buchu, cubebs, and juniper berries, it occurred to me and my physician as an excellent combination, and, with his advice, after an examination of the article, and consulting again with the druggist, I concluded to try it. I commenced its use about eight months ago, at which time I was confined to my room.—From the first bottle I was astonished and gratified at the beneficial effect, and after using it three weeks, was able to walk out. I felt much like writing you a full statement of my case at that time, but thought my improvement might only be temporary, and therefore concluded to defer, and see if it would effect a perfect cure, knowing then it would be of greater value to you, and more satisfactory to me.

I am now able to report that a cure is effected after using the remedy for five months. I have not used any now for three months, and feel as well in all respects as I ever did.

Your Buchu being devoid of any unpleasant taste and odor, a diuretic and invigorator of the system, I do not mean to be without it whenever occasion may require its use in such affections.

ANOTHER FIRE IN GOLDSBORO.'—At about 8½ o'clock, on Monday evening last, our citizens were alarmed by the cry of fire which was found to proceed from the blacksmith shop in the rear of the Carriage Factory of Messrs. Baker & Jones. The shop, containing a portion of the tools, was burned, and it was owing only to the prompt arrival of a number of our citizens on the spot and the calmness of the night that the adjoining buildings were saved. The loss sustained by Messrs. Baker & Jones is estimated at $5.00.

Company B, of the soldiers stationed at this garrison, under command of an officer, came to the rescue but their services were not required. To them, in behalf of the citizens of Goldsboro', we tender our grateful thanks for the interest manifested.

COAL MINE HORROR.

Our New York exchanges for the past week contain lengthy accounts of a terrible fire at the Coal Mines in Plymouth, Pennsylvania, which took place on the morning of the 6th instant after the miners, about two hundred in number, had descended and commenced their day's labor. The shaft, which was their only means of escape, was choked by forty feet of burning coals and rubbish, ventillation was entirely checked, and two hundred human beings were there buried alive, to die the terrible death of suffocation.

The fire was very sudden and it was impossible to render the unfortunate miners any assistance whatever, although every means which human ingenuity could prompt were used to extricate them from the horrible pit, 'ere life had become extinct.

After considerable time the fire was extinguished and one hundred and eight bodies taken from the mine, which were all that could be found.

The citizens of New York and other Northern cities have contributed quite largely to relieve the sufferings of the widows and orphans of those killed by this horrible calamity.

THE CIRCUS IS COMING!—John Robinson's (the original John's) great circus and menagerie is now performing in Maryland, and will, probably, strike this place about the middle of October. Lay up your shin-plasters, boys.

CAR BURNED.—A freight car loaded with tobacco on the Wilmington and Weldon Road, at Rocky Mount, caught fire and was consumed on Friday morning last. The loss is estimated at from $8,000 to $10,000.

THE CHILDREN'S HOUR.—The October number of this excellent magazine for the little ones, has made its appearance, and contains the usual amount of choice reading matter—both entertaining and instructive—with suitable illustrations. Published by T. S. Arthur & Sons Philadelphia, Penn., at $1.25 per year.

The Penitentiary, to be built at Raleigh, will need 4,000,000 brick for the walls. The total cost of building will be between $500,000 and $600,000.

A SERENADE THAT DIDN'T PAY.—The other night an anxious lover engaged the Cornet Band to go and serenade the idol of his heart. The Band stopped at the wrong house, and after playing their sweetest music for some time, it was discovered that the house was occupied by three or four negroes, who had been charmed by the "concord of sweet sounds," but were entirely ignorant of the reason of their being honored by a serenade. The proper place was found after a while, and of caurse the musicians gave the best that was in their horns.

It was discovered the next morning that while the band was playing at the wrong house, the object of the serenade eloped with "another fellow."

The disappointed lover does not go serenading now.—Mont, Mail.

Science has been reduced to fine point. At the general session of the American Association for the advancement of Science, at Salem, telegraph wires, which had been put in connection with some of the patients at the City Hospital at Boston were so manipulated as to transmit the fluctuations of their pulses, which were faithfully indicated by the click of the instruments in the hall, and by the aid of a magnesium light the exact motion of the blood was depicted by a little circle of light cast upon a darkened wall. After this, it was demonstrated to the ear by the ringing of two little telegraphic bells, showing the two different sounds of the beating heart.

The earning of the Pacific railroad for August were $577,000, showing a steady increase in passengers and freight.

Goldsborough News.

WEDNESDAY SEPT. 15, 1869.

DON'T YOU THINK SO?

TO BACHELOR JOE.

You squeezed my hand the other night,
And ask'd me soft and slowly,
If in a month I would be yours,
In wedlock sweet and holy?
I don't object to being wed,
And would not from it shrink so,
But marriage is a ticklish thing—
Be candid—don't you think so?

A maiden when she gives her hand,
Gives with it all her freedom;
She can't have pleasant flirts with men,
And as she pleases—lead 'em,
Her husband goes to clubs o' nights,
And sometimes he will drink so,
That his poor wife will feel ashamed,
My good sir, don't you think so?

They say that love will soon grow cold,
The passion's but as tinder;
When Poverty comes at the door,
Love flies out at the window.
Prove true and love me to the last,
And bless the power that links so;
Be mine forever—and I'm yours,
Dear creature! don't you think so?

SARAH JANE.

SWEARING AT TRAVELERS.

The following story is a good one, and will do to cause a laugh in these depressing times when all is black and dull. The scene of the story is laid in California, whence a great many good things come.

In the northern part of California is a stream called "Yuba Run."—Across it some enterprising individuals built a bridge; and on the banks somebody else built three or four houses. The inhabitants called the place "Yuba Dam." Three bars were instantly erected, and the town increased rapidly. About noon on a cold day, a traveler and sojourner in the land passed this flourishing locality, and seeing a long legged specimen of humanity in a red shirt, smoking before one of the bars, thus addressed him:

"Hello!"

"Hello, yourself!" replied the shirt, with a vigor, removing his pipe from his mouth.

"What place is this?" demanded the traveler, whose name was Thompson.

The answer of the shirt was rather unexpected,—"Yuba Dam."

About fifty yards intervened between the parties, and the wind was blowing. Mr. Thompson thought he had been mistaken, and enquired again.

"Yuba Dam," replied the stranger cheerfully.

"What place is this?" roared Mr. Thompson.

"Yuba Dam," responded the shirt, in an elevated voice.

"Lookee here?" yelled the irate Thompson, "I asked you politely what place this was; why in the thunder don't you answer?"

The stranger became excited.—He rose and replied with a voice of an 80 pounder, "YUBA DAM! Do you hear that?"

In a moment, Thompson, burning with the wrath of the righteous, jumped off his horse and advanced on the stranger in a way not to be mistaken. The red shirt arose and assumed a posture of offence and defence. Arrived within a yard of him, Thompson said:

"I ask you for the last time, what place is this?"

Putting his hand to his mouth, red shirt roared, "YU-BA DAM!!"

The next minute they were at it. First Thompson was down, then the shirt, and then it was a dog-fall—that is, both were down. They rolled about, kicking up a tremendous dust. They squirmed around so energetically that you'd have thought they had a dozen legs instead of four. It looked like a prize fight between live centipedes. Finally they both rolled off the bank into the river. The water cooled them. They went down together, but came up seperate, and put out for the shore. Both reached it about the same time. Thompson scrambled up the bank, mounted his warlike steed, leaving his foe gouging the mud out of one of his eyes.

Having left the business part of the town—that is to say, the corner where the three bars were kept—he struck across in the suburbs, where he saw a little girl of about four years of age playing. "What place is this, sissy?"

The little girl, frightened at his drowned-rat like figure, streaked it for home. Having reached the door she stopped, turned and squalled, "Oo-ba Dam!"

"Good Heavens!" said Thompson, digging his heels between his horse's ribs. "Good Heavens! let me get out of this horrid place, where not only the men, but the very babes swear at inoffensive travelers."

DOTY'S WASHING MACHINE,

LATELY MUCH IMPROVED—AND THE NEW

Universal Clothes Wringer

Improved with ROWELL'S PATENT DOUBLE COG WHEELS, and the PATENT STOP, are now unquestionably far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented, and will save their cost twice a year, by saving labor and clothes.

Those who have used them give testimony as follows:

"We like our machine much; could not be persuaded to do without it, and with the aid of Doty, we feel that we are masters of the position."—Rev. L. Scott Bishop M. E. Church.

"It is worth one dollar a week in any family."—N. Y. Tribune

"In the laundry of my house there is a perpetual thanksgiving on Mondays for the invention."—Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler.

"Every week has given it a stronger hold upon the affections of the inmates of the laundry."—N. Y. Observer.

"I heartily commend it to economists of time, money, and contentment."—Rev Dr. Bellows.

"Friend Doty—Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. I assure you 'our Machine,' after a year's use, is thought more of to-day than ever, and would not be parted with under any circumstances."—Solon Robinson.

"Your Washing Machine has been in daily use in our laundry, and the housekeeper expresses herself as highly pleased with it. It certainly accomplishes a greater amount of work, with less labor, and does not wear the clothes near so much as the old fashioned wash-board. By using it, one laundress is dispensed with"—Wm. M. F. Round, Superintendeat of Infant Department of St. Catharine's Nursery, N. Y City.

PRICES.—A Fair Offer.

Send the retail price, Washer $14, Extra Wringer $9, and we will forward either or both machines, free of freight, to places where no one is selling; and so sure are we they will be liked, that we agree to refund the money if any one wishes to return the machines free of freight, after a month's trial, according to directions.

No husband, father or brother should permit the drudgery of washing with the hands, fifty-two days in the year, when it can be done better, more expeditiously, with less labor, and no injury to the garments, by a Doty Clothes Washer, and a Universal Wringer.

Canvassers with exclusive right of sale make money fast selling them.

Sold by dealers generally, to whom liberal discounts are made.

TESTIMONIALS;

WILLIAMSTON, MARTIN Co., February 22nd, 1869.

MR. JNO. R. CONGLETON, RALEIGH, N. C.

Dear Sir:—For the last eight or ten years I have been exceedingly troubled with the painful and distressing case of the Piles. Hearing "Congleton's Vegetable Salve" spoken so highly of as the great cure for Piles, I purchased in March, 1868, while in Washington N. C, one box, and was soon relieved, and by the time I had used the contents of the box I was perfectly well, and have never had any return since. I consider myself entirely and permanently cured. I give this for the benefit of those who may be troubled with the same disease, believing thereby that I will be benefiting them, and recommending to them a most valuable medicine and worthy of great praise.

I have also used the salve for Sore Throat and find it the best medicine I ever had in my family for that complaint.

Respectfully yours
JAS H ELLISON.

☞ THE MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF PILES ON RECORD ☜

WAKE COUNTY, N. C, Feb. 14, 1866

MR. CONGLETON—Dear Sir:—It is with pleasure that I chronicle to the efficacy of your Vegetable Salve, in the cure of Piles. I have been afflicted with said disease some twenty five years, more or less. I have tried various remedies, but found no cure until I was advised by a friend in Raleigh to try your Salve, which I have done, and am at present perfectly well. I have used only one box, which I think, it judiciously used, will cure any case like mine.

I would advise all afflicted with said disease to go and do likewise.

Yours respectfully.
HENRY UTLEY.

TESTIMONIALS:

RALEIGH, N. C, Jan 16, 1869.

MR CONGLETON:—On the 14th inst., I came to town with considerable pain and swelling in my right knee. I got a bottle of the "American Rheumatic Liniment" and applied it to my knee, which was greatly relieved and assuaged in ten hours. I then applied it again and by night was so far cured as to forget to apply the remedy; this pain had resisted the application of Liquid Opodeldoc for a week without any perceptible improvement, causing a limp in my walk at sometime and fears of inability to walk at all.

Respectfully,
THOS BAILY,
Book Agent, Dayton N. C.

WAKE COUNTY, N. C., Feb. 24th, 1869.

MR. CONGLETON:—Dear Sir: My little son was for four months suffering with pain in his legs and weakness in his knees so he scarcely could get about and walked with great difficulty. I was fearful that he would lose the use of his legs entirely, which gave me a great deal of trouble and anxiety, hearing of the American Rheumatic Liniment, I purchased one bottle and commenced using it, and by the time I had used half of the bottle, my son was greatly relieved and could walk very well, and after using the whole bottle, he is now perfectly well, with many thanks to you and praises for the "American Rheumatic Liniment" I am yours, &c.,

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, designed to be the most effectual Alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.
